

Farley K. Banks is a trial attorney in Lima, Ohio. His areas of practice include: Bankruptcy; Criminal Law, to include felonies, misdemeanors, OVI and DUS Offenses; Domestic Relations; Juvenile Law; Probate, to include wills, trusts, guardianships, Powers of Attorney, Estate Planning; Landlord and Tenant Issues and Mediation.

Prior to receiving his law degree in 1995 from Claude W. Pettit College of Law at Ohio Northern University, Mr. Banks was an officer in the United States Air Force. He worked in the public affairs and audiovisual officer career fields for more than 12 years with assignments in California, Illinois, and Michigan. He separated from the Air Force in 1992.

His education includes a Bachelor of Arts degree in Radio-Television-Film from the University of Maryland in College Park, Maryland, and a Masters of Business Administration degree from Webster University, St. Louis, Missouri.

Mr. Banks is licensed to practice law in the State of Ohio, Federal District Court before the Northern District of Ohio and the United States Supreme Court. He belongs to the following professional organizations: The American Bar Association, the Ohio State Bar Association, the Allen, Hardin County Bar Associations and the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys.

Mr. Banks resides in Lima, Ohio with his wife Carmella and they have one daughter.